

5 modes to choose from:

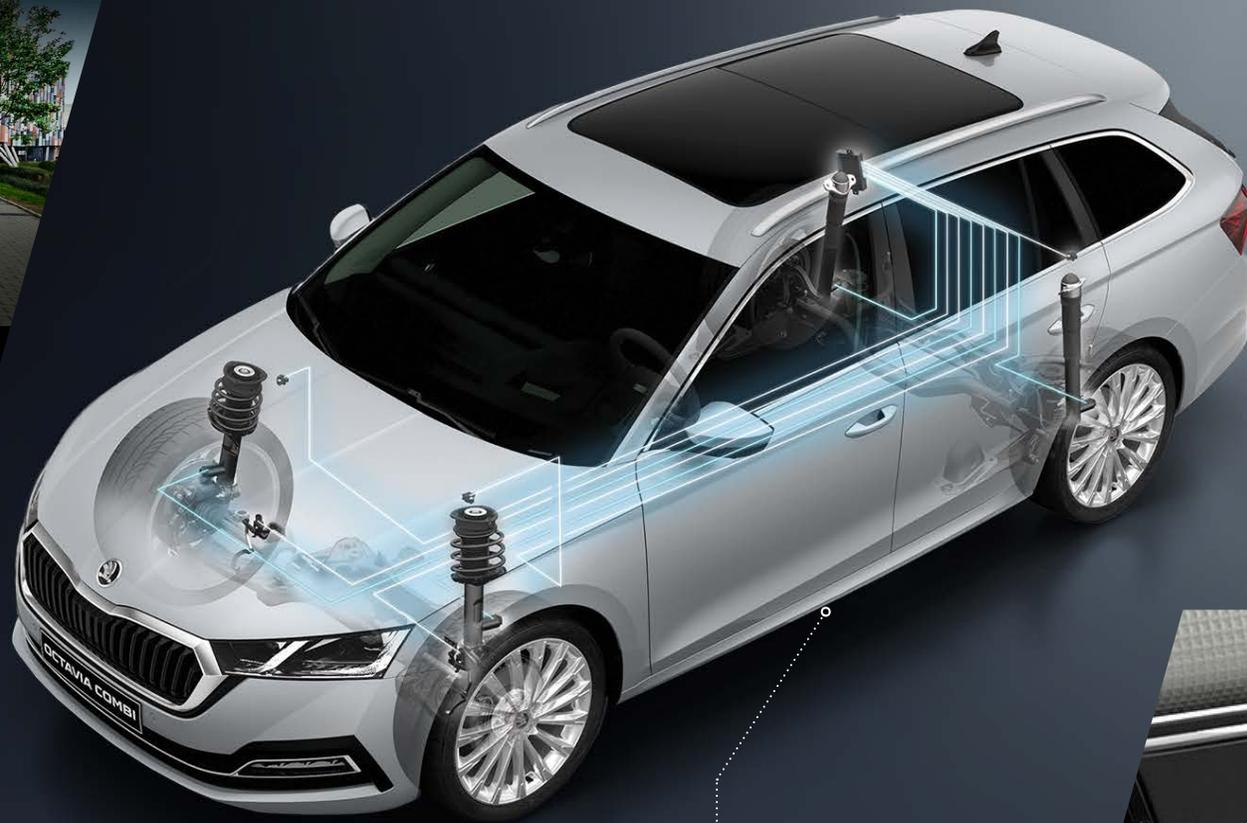

Eco: providing maximum fuel economy over the longest possible range

Comfort: for a smooth ride offering maximum comfort

Normal: suitable for a regular driving style

Sport: for sportier handling responding quicker to driver input

Individual: allowing the parameters of individual modes to be combined; fifteen options available, including Supersport

Adjusted using Driving Mode Select via the MODE button; settings are displayed on the infotainment system

Ground clearance reduced by 10 mm due to the different shock absorbers

